PREZ SEZ

The League board members met on July 12 for our annual Retreat. Every year board members from the previous year's board and the incoming board members meet to reflect on what we've accomplished in the past year and what we hope to accomplish in the year ahead.

We spent the day considering everything the League stands for: supporting grass roots citizen participation in the political process at the local, state and national levels; providing nonpartisan information about political candidates and issues; actively supporting positions on issues that we've studied carefully, and more.

We took pride in the excellent programs we offered last year and started planning programs for the year ahead. We based our program planning on the ideas that our membership provided at last year's Speak-In and the Annual Meeting, plus new ideas our board members generated.

We examined each facet of how our local League is operating and discussed ideas for improving what we offer to our members and the community at large. We discussed ideas for serving our membership better and what we can do to expand membership.

Beyond all the topics and details covered at the Retreat, we recognized and confirmed again that maintaining our integrity as a trusted organization is our most important asset. Trust is built on our commitment to honesty and adherence to a transparent process which allows every member to be heard, yet reserves decision power for our League board. In the wider community, that trust is based on the knowledge that the League is dedicated to providing nonpartisan information that voters can trust in deciding how to fulfill their civic responsibility. In an age of shrill ideology and name calling, the League continues to be dedicated to our responsibility to provide open discourse and respect for all citizens.

Soon you'll be receiving a membership renewal letter that will also offer some possibilities for you to get more involved in the League. Consider how you can get more involved. I guarantee you'll enjoy it.

Karen Schwartz, President

Meet The Member Karen Schwartz, President

Think for a moment about when you first got involved with the League of Women Voters.

Here's my story: My husband, Larry, and I had grown up in the Midwest and arrived in California during a period when social unrest was erupting. I grew up in Cleveland in a home with a Republican business executive father and a Democratic stay-at-home mother, so I discovered early in life that there is more than one side to any issue.

Now I was the mother of two young daughters, living in the Oakland hills, and feeling starved for stimulating conversation with bright, informed adults who were comfortable considering new ideas.

At the first League meeting I attended, I listened closely and heard articulate women who seemed well informed about issues at the local, state, and national levels. I decided to join the League and learn more. I slowly got more involved, editing The Voter in the days when we literally used scissors and paste to assemble each issue. I even tried moderating a League Candidates' Forum, a frightening prospect for someone who panicked in public speaking situations. Though I'd tried either of these activities before, I experienced a surprising number of successes and only a few failures. More importantly, I grew more confident in taking on new challenges because I survived moving out of my comfort zone.

Years passed. We left Oakland for greener pastures and a move to Nevada County. Once again I found myself feeling starved for stimulating social interaction with informed, questioning adults. I rediscovered the League, and once again the League gave me so much more than I expected.

Meet The Member

Now it's time for me to try to give back to the League, and thus, this year, I'll be president. Once again, I'm taking on something new, moving out of my comfort zone and risking failure. I'm confident, however, in the combined talents of our League board members, a fine team who'll work with me to make this another successful year for the League.

I'm also very confident in our membership. Please continue to attend meetings, ask questions and express your opinions. Let your League board know what you're interested in. Support us by contacting government representatives when action is called for and by donating your time and money when it can make a real difference.

Together we can make this a year to remember!

The following specific issues were selected for emphasis for 2007-2009 within California:

Budget

Education

Why We Chose These Issues for Emphasis

In the winter of even numbered years, members across California begin the program planning process by reviewing all existing positions and current issues with their local League members. After discussion, each local League chooses positions to be retained, reviewed, updated, and/or deleted as well as those that the LWVC should emphasize for the following two years. In spring, the LWVC board of directors evaluates the responses from local Leagues along with current state issues and available financial and human resources. The board develops a proposed League program. The proposed program could include issues for emphasis using existing positions or possible development of new or updated positions through the study process. In May, delegates to the LWVC Convention vote not only on the issues for emphasis, but also on: retention, update and deletion of positions; proposed studies; and the budget for these activities.

Our issues are selected through this grassroots process, with some modifications by the board over time (in order to be responsive to the changing needs of our state).

A League OF THEIR OWN

DOTTIE SCHMIDT

At the recent convention of the California State Federation, National Active and Retired Federal Employees Association (NARFE), long-time League of Women Voters member, Dottie Schmidt, was elected unanimously by the almost 300 NARFE delegates attending the convention in Ontario, California. She will hold the position of President for the next four years.

Her friends and fellow Leaguers all wish to congratulate Dottie, who has been co-president of our League in 1995, president in 1999, and again in 2004, on her recent election to the NARFE office.

POLLY BACICH

League member, Polly Bacich, after serving as State President of the California Retired Teachers Association since 2007, is now the Past President of that organization. Polly held many offices within CalRTA prior to being elected State President and Legislation Chair and had been a member of the State Legislation Committee and Area II Legislation Platform Committee.

Polly has been our League's Action/Legislation Director since 2004 and is responsible for being the public advocate (Action) for the policies of the League, and the primary educator dispensing information (Legislation) to our members and to our community.

BETTY FORD (1918-2011)

(In Memoriam)

Betty Ford a self-proclaimed "ordinary" woman, died Friday, July 8, at the age of 93. To the surprise of some and the consternation others, she evolved as an activist first lady whose non-threatening manner coupled with her newfound celebrity provided the women's movement an impressive ally. Undaunted by critics, she campaigned for the ill-fated Equal Rights Amendment, spoke up without apology for abortion rights, taking a position contrary to the president's. "Having babies is a blessing, not a duty," Mrs. Ford said, and lobbied her husband to name more women to policymaking government jobs. She said things that first ladies just didn't say, even today, and America of the 1970s loved her for it. We still do!

“ Grow the Future ”

LEAGUE OF WOMEN VOTERS OF CALIFORNIA CONVENTION 2011

Thank you for sending me as your delegate to this year’s State Convention in Ventura. I was able to stay with friends and, of course, enjoyed my evenings with them. My days (Saturday and Sunday) were spent at Convention in the Crowne Plaza Hotel, where Saturday afternoon I found myself on the 35th floor looking down at surfers off the same beach I had surfed over 50 years ago!

I was able to attend two workshops, hear three speakers and attend four plenary sessions. In the plenary sessions we adopted all positions recommended by the State Board and elected the slate of proposed officers. The speakers and workshops were more interesting.

What a pleasure it was to see and hear Fiona Ma, Assembly Speaker pro tem. She is young, beautiful and impressive. When asked her opinion of term limits, she answered that she wouldn’t have gotten into the Assembly if Willie Brown had not been termed out. But now she will soon be termed out. Assemblyman Katcho Achadjian gave a speech on civility in politics, for which he is well known. Janice Hirohama, President of LWVC, chaired the Convention and gave a speech on leadership. She is a very strong and very positive leader.

The Membership Workshop gave me some ideas to pass on to our Membership Director, but I think I learned most from the Health Care Workshop. First there is the Federal Affordable Care Act which created for each state a Health Benefit Exchange. The California Exchange aims to be operational by 2014. Also, there are various bills proposed in California to tweak the current healthcare systems to better serve most of us.

The great energy and enthusiasm I felt from the convention delegates, however, was about the single-payer bill SB810 or Medicare For All Californians. Recognizing that California is the “big boy on the block”, if we become a single-payer, we can drive down healthcare costs while providing healthcare for all. Many Leagues in California have already taken positions supporting SB810. It has moved from the Senate Health Committee to the Appropriations Committee. Hopefully, it will continue its journey to the floor of the Senate and then on to the Assembly!

The League of Women Voters of Western Nevada County has a good reputation around the state. Some delegates, however, as I was amused to learn, were bemused at the word “Nevada” in our name. Some thought we were a Nevada League—even though we were at a California state convention, and some had no idea that there was a Nevada County in California!

It was a great experience. Thanks again.

Anne DeWitt, Delegate
